

KIRKNEWTON PAVILION WALKING MAP

There are many walking and jogging routes throughout Kirknewton and the local area. The Kirknewton Pavilion is a great place to start from and our map shows just some of our residents local routes. There is a variety of different walks from short strolls to look at the history of the village, to Kaimes hill with great views over the Forth valley. For the adventurous you can walk from Kirknewton and over the Pentlands on one of the old Drovers roads. We ask that you respect the land and follow the Scottish Access Code.

THINGS TO SEE & DO

Kirknewton Airfield
Providing flying experience and training to members of the Royal Air Force Air Cadets.

Charles Jencks Stones
Standing Stone sculpture by famous landscape designer Charles Jencks on the edge of the village.

Selm Muir Woods
A network of forest roads, tracks and paths give access to this tranquil forest and Fishery.

Kirknewton House Stables
A refurbished former stables and popular wedding venue with its very own Highland Cows.

Kaimes Hill
The Kaimes and Dalmahoy Hills form a prominent landscape and offer fantastic views.

KIRKNEWTON
COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT TRUST